THE STADIO OLIMPICO

AS Roma's home stadium is the Stadio Olimpico. Renovated for the UEFA Euro 2020 tournament, it is the largest stadium in the city and famously hosted the 1990 FIFA World Cup Final. It is a UEFA Category 4 stadium, making it a landmark for any football fan to visit.

CAPACITY:

72,698 seats

PITCH SIZE:

105m x 68m

ADDRESS:

Viale dei Gladiatori, 00135 Roma RM, Italy

HOW TO REACH THE STADIUM

The Stadio Olimpico is located in the northern part of the city (about seven kilometers from the city centre). There are a few of ways to get to the stadium. Although you can drive, we would recommend you take public transport. As with many major cities, it can get a bit congested, meaning you may spend more time than you would like to reach the stadium. Taxi's are also an option to reach the stadium.

There are a few transport apps that offer discounted rates for people traveling to the stadium, which could make this football trip more affordable than you think. However, if you are determined to drive yourself, take the Roma-Fiumicino motorway from Leonardo Da Vinci airport. From there, you should take GRA Cassia-Flaminia until you get to exit N° 5 (Flaminia). Then, all you need to do is follow the signs to the stadium (Foro Italo).

Information on how to reach the Stadio Olimpico by public transportation

If you are near the Metro B line, you can take the metro towards Laurentina and get off at the Termini train station. From there take the underground train towards Battistini and get off at the Ottaviano stop. Following this, take bus No.32 until you get to Piazzale della Farnesina. Once you are there, you are within walking distance of the stadium.

If you are not near the Metro B line, you can use the Metro A line to get to the Termini Train Station. Once there you can switch to the Metro B line and follow the above indications.

A meeting point for visiting supporters will be organized near the Stadium.

THE CITY

Rome is the capital of Italy. With 2.8 million residents in 1,285 km² (496.1 sq mi), it is also the country's most populated commune. It is the fourth-most populous city in the European Union by population within city limits.

The metropolitan city of Rome has a population of 4.3 million persons. Rome is located in the central-western portion of the Italian Peninsula, along the shores of the Tiber. The Vatican City is an independent country inside the city boundaries of Rome, the only existing example of a country within a city: for this reason Rome has been often defined as the capital of two states.

Rome's history spans over 28 centuries. While Roman mythology dates the founding of Rome at around 753 BC, the site has been inhabited for much longer, making it one of the oldest continuously occupied sites in Europe.

The city successively became the capital of the Roman Kingdom, the Roman Republic and the Roman Empire, and is regarded as the birthplace of Western civilization and by some as the first ever metropolis. It was first called The Eternal City (Latin: Urbs Aeterna; Italian: La Città Eterna) by the Roman poet Tibullus in the 1st century BC, and the expression was also taken up by Ovid, Virgil, and Livy. Rome is also known as the "Caput Mundi" (Capital of the World).

Rome today is one of the most important tourist destinations of the world, due to the incalculable greatness of its archaeological and art treasures, as well as for the charm of its unique traditions, the beauty of its panoramic views, and the majesty of its magnificent "villas".
